GERMANS STEADILY GIVING GROUND ON THE SOISSONS TO RHEIMS FRONT

CHATEAU THIERRY NOW HELD BY FRENCH

Entire Southern Bank of Marne Now Clear of Enemy With Allies Harassing Those Southwest of Rheims

BRITISH COOPERATING

Further Good Sized Indentations Have Been Made in German Lines Between Soissons and Chateau Thierry By American and French Troops

(By the Associated Press.)

Victories for the Allied arms in France continue to multiply. Over the entire 60-mile front running from Soissons to Rheims the Allied troops are fighting with a determination that brooks no denial of their efforts, and the Germans steadily are giving ground, although stubborn resistance is being offered on some sectors.

Further goodly-sized indentations have been made in the German lines between Soissons and Chateau Thierry by the American and French troops, and almost all the gains made by the Germans in their recent drive south of the Marne and toward the vicinity of Rheims have been blotted out under the counter attacks of the Americans, French, British and Italians.

Chateau Thierry, which represents the point in the battle line where the Germans have driven in their wedge nearest to Paris, has been recaptured by the French troops, and almost simultaneously the village of Brasles, two miles eastward on the heights to the north of the village, fell into their hands.

Acting in harmony with the movement on Chateau Thierry, Americans and French northwest of the city struck the Germans another hard blow, broke through the German lines and drove through at some points more than three miles.

Large numbers of prisoners were taken and the machine guns of the Allied troops literally mowed down the Germans who endeavored to stay their progress.

To the north along the Ourcq valley the French are making good progress toward the important junction town of Nanteuil-Notre Dame, while the operations south and southwest of Soissons are keeping time with those along the other parts of the front.

The entire southern bank of the Marne having been cleared of enemy forces, French, British and Italian troops are now harassing those southwest of Rheims, and they have been forced to fall back in the Courton wood, the Ardre valley, and near St. Euphariste, notwithstanding their desperate resistance.

The number of British operating with the Allied forces in this region is not known. The first announcement that they were in the action was made Saturday night and, doubtless they represent a portion of the great reserves that everywhere are being brought up along the battle line in an endeavor to make secure the victories already won and enlarging them.

With the capture of Chateau Thierry and the last progress of the French and Americans eastward from the northern sector, the plight of the Germans in the southwest portion of the Soissons-Rheims salient becomes increasingly hazardous and it is not improbable that when stock is finally taken, large numbers of prisoners and quantities of guns and war stores will be found to have been taken by the Allied troops. Aviators continue to lend assistance to the troops of General Foch, scouting the back areas and harassing the retreating Germans with their machine guns. Notable work has been done by American Indians for General Pershing's men, the Aborginies taking a most prominent part, in characteristic western fashion, in scouting the Marne region.

It definitely has been established that an enemy submarine is again operating in American waters. An underwater boat Sunday off Cape Cod, Mass., destroyed four barges and a tug and dropped four shells on the mainland. Several persons afloat were injured, but no one on land was harmed by the shells.

In none of the other theatres except the Soissons-Rheims salient is there any fighting of great moment in progress. The British in Northern France and Flanders are continuing their daily patrol encounters and taking prisoners, while the guns of both the Germans and the British are keeping up their reciprocal bombardments.

German Morale Demoralized.

Germany has already paid a terrible price in the fighting that is going on between Soissons and Chateau Thierry. The advancing Allied forces have passed great piles of dead and many wounded. The sufferers are are cared for expeditiously and well and the Allied forces are displaying a fine spirit of co-operation.

Among the prisoners captured was a German colonel and his staff. They had taken refuge in a quarry and refused to obey a summons to come out. After efforts to induce them to surrender appeared to be wasted, hand grenades were dropped down a chimney leading into the quarry. Those unhurt, including the colonel, quickly emerged.

In the long line of prisoners along the road there are many expressing bewilderment. But here and there some of them smile, and happily respond to the query "going to Paris?"

Until late today there was little effort to bring pressure to bear against the other part of the enemy lines. Both French and American officers appeared to be more than pleased at the successes attained. Full credit is given to the plan of General Foch, which already has netted magnificent results and which promises to convert the ambitious claims of the German in to a fiasco.

The number of prisoners taken is being increased and by some of the men it is entertained that the demoralization of the Germany army is greater than was expected. Those taken by one American unit alone, represent seven separate divisions. One lot of 55 captured contains men belonging to five different divisions. This fact and the stories of the prisoners indicate that Germany has lost much in organization.

Retreated Under Heavy Fire.

From the heights overlooking the Marne one correspondent witnessed the battle throughout yesterday until after midnight. It was evident that the Germans were contemplating a further retreat after their defeat at the hands of the French, American, British and Italian divisions, which, by vigorous counter attacks and manoeuvers, had drawn about a precipitate retreat of the German Crown Prince's chosen troops and sent them fleeing to the northern bank of the Marne.

These troops did not get across the Marne without hindrance, as the French and Americans kept up a steady fire upon them. One group of American Field battery fired continuously for 72 hours, aiming both at the bank of the Marne and the pontoon bridges erected by the enemy across the stream. For long periods the enemy troops were prevented by this fire from utilizing the pontoons for crossing the river.

GENERAL PERSHING'S REPORT.

"Section B.—There is nothing to report in this section."

Will Name Candidates, Hoping to Adjourn Tuesday Night

Saratoga Springs, July 21. — Democrats from all parts of the state assembled here tonight preparatory to the state convention, which will be formally opened at noon Tuesday. Among the early arrivals were Charles Murphy, leader of Tammany hall; Senator Robert Wagner, chairman of the platform committee; Norman E. Mack, member of the National Democratic committee; Representative Dean E. Smith, secretary, and Philip Donohue, treasurer of Tammany hall.

The platform and organization committee will meet Monday night, at which time the sub-committee on candidates of the "committee of 42" will also assemble for the purpose of attempting to eliminate some of the seven names suggested by the Syracuse convention as possible gubernatorial candidates.

The program of the convention as announced tonight provides for the election of J. Augustus Kellogg of Glens Falls as temporary chairman and later as permanent chairman on Tuesday afternoon. At the evening session it is planned to dispose of the platform and then proceed to the selection of candidates. If possible the work of the convention will be completed at Tuesday night's meeting, the leaders agreed. The convention will be composed of 450 delegates, 159 of whom will be from New York city. Included in the total will be about 150 women.

CASUALTY LISTS COMPARED

Considered Unlikely That Losses of Past Week Are Included.

Washington, D. C., July 21. — Casualties of the army and Marine corps increased 933 as compared with 647 the previous week and aggregate 13,760 with the inclusion of today's army list of 192 and the Marine corps list of 26.

While the week's total casualties were the largest amount for any week since the American troops have been in the battle front, it is unlikely that those which have resulted from the heavy fighting in which the Americans have been participating since last Monday, are included in the total. The process of transmitting the names by cable, from the headquarters of the American expeditionary forces in France, and the notifying of relatives in this country after a careful checking up of the records, is slow.

In the 12,500 casualties, total deaths, including the men lost at sea, killed in action, died of wounds, disease and accidents number 5,100—army men 4,421, marines 679. The wounded aggregate 6,941—army men 5,871, marines 1,174. Those missing, including prisoners, total 675—army men 593, marines 82. Killed in action and other deaths number 427, compared with 252 the previous week, and the missing and prisoners 91, compared with 81 the previous week.

SUCCESSFUL SAYS BERLIN.

Berlin, Germany, via London, England, July 21.—On the battlefield between the Aisne and the Marne, after a successful defense against the French, attacks have been renewed and the fighting is going on, according to the official statement issued today at the war office. Southwest of Rheims attacks by the enemy also failed, the statement adds.

HOLDING AT THE MARNE.

London, England, July 21. — German rear guards have succeeded thus far in preventing the French from pushing detachments over the Marne river. They are holding the north bank of the stream with strong units. In the Ourcq valley the French are approaching Oulchy-le-Chateau.

MARINE CORPS CASUALTIES.

Washington, D. C., July 21. — The Marine corps casualty list today shows: Killed in action, 12; died of wounds, 2; wounded severely, 12. Total, 26.

Important Gains Says Paris

Paris, France, July 21.—Important gains by the French, Americans, Italians and British troops in the territory comprising the Soissons-Rheims salient is reported in the official communication issued by the war office tonight. The height east of La Croix and Grosilles, has been taken, a considerable section north of Chateau Thierry has been cleared of the Germans, and St. Euphariste and Boulily, southwest of Rheims, have been captured.

FRENCH OCCUPY CHATE'U THIERRY

Germans Retreating North of Marne Under Heavy Pressure

NOT SO NEAR PARIS NOW

Heavy Artillery Pounding Away Clearing Districts on the North Bank

By the Associated Press.)

With the American army in France, July 21. — Chateau Thierry, the corner stone of the line of the farthest German advance, fell early this morning, when the French occupied the city, driving the Germans before them. The enemy has begun his retreat northward under heavy pressure from all sides, French, Americans and British all participating in the thrust which is pushing the Germans back. Where the retreat will end cannot be conjectured, as everything now depends upon the will of the Allied commander in chief.

The German position in the vicinity of Chateau Thierry was doomed from the moment their divisions recrossed the Marne. Franco-American troops carried out an encircling movement from the northwest at the same time, which made it absolutely necessary for the enemy to withdraw. In the course of the night, reconnoissances were effected by the French to test the strength of the Germans still in the city and shortly after dawn the Allied reoccupation became an accomplished fact.

Allies Advance Three Miles.

The French and the Americans have broken through the German lines northwest of Chateau Thierry. They, driving the spearhead toward the northeast, have already advanced five kilometers (3.1 miles) at various places.

The Allied troops have taken many prisoners, including three officers, who said that they were tired of the war. American infanurymen captured two German 77s. Previous to the breaking of the German lines the Allies battled with the desperate machine gunners, who were mowed down as the Allied re-enforcements arrived. The German losses were frightful.

Retreating from Marne.

An attack from Chateau Thierry to Rheims began Saturday. American forces captured hill 193, north of Vaux, and advanced more than two kilometers. At last accounts they were holding their own against German resistance. The German retreat across the Marne began on Friday under cover of a great smoke screen. At last accounts great hordes of Germans were continuing north. Organized resistance has been met with so far only at a few places.

The district south of the Marne and east of Chateau Thierry is entirely clear of Germans. Two badly cut up regiments were left south of the Marne in the German retreat. Allied aviators bombed the bridges across the river and their escape was impossible.

All Saturday night the Allies hammered away at the widening wedge between the Germans and Paris, and the Germans withdrew north of the Marne. Americans continued taking prisoners and guns. Allied re-enforcements are pouring in to overcome any determined resistance the Germans may attempt. The heavy artillery of the Allies continues today the clearing of districts north of the Marne. Indian scouts who were with Pershing in Mexico played a prominent part in the scout work in the river region.

MUNITION WORKERS TO STRIKE.

London, England, July 21. — The ministry of munitions announced tonight that it had received word that a mass meeing of munition workers at Burminghampton today it was resolved to go on strike Wednesday night unless the embargo on skilled labor is withdrawn. Queen Mary sent for Mr. Hoover, after his conversation with King George, especially to emphasize the appreciation of the British women for the enormous effort of the American women the past year.

BASEBALL MANAGERS TO HOLD CONFERENCE

Teams of Big Leagues Will Continue to Play Pending a Decision

Chicago, Ill., July 21.—Word here tonight was to the effect that all baseball will be suspended at a meeting to be held as a result of Secretary Baker's decision to class baseball as non-productive under the "work or fight" issue today. Orders were issued to continue playing until further notice.

The American association closed its season today and awarded the pennant to Kansas City.

American league owners today, the majority of whom are said to be in favor of closing their parks at once, will meet tomorrow evening with President Ban Johnson presiding to make a final decision.

"The National league officials, many of who are said to favor continuing their schedule, will meet in Pittsburgh Tuesday. August Herrmann, President of the Cincinatti club, and chairman of the National Baseball commission, told President Johnson over the long distance telephone that it was impossible for him to reach President Tener of the National league and that the emergency was so great that he had called the meeting and th club owners had agreed." The previous meeting called by President Tener was set for New York on Wednesday.

President Johnson late today telegraphed all American league clubs to continue all play until receipt of official notice to quit.

President Johnson said that the telegram was sent to give the war players notice that he was confident the order to stop playing until further notice will be sent out from Cleveland before tomorrow night. He left tonight for Cleveland.

Two games scheduled for tomorrow between Cincinnati and Chicago of the National league were, late today, cancelled by Pres. Herrmann of the Cincinnati club, who said they were postponed games. He said that the regular schedule would be carried out.

Michell, manager of the Chicago Nationals said that although he had received orders to instruct players to hold themselves in readiness for future developments, he had not been instructed to make the next trip east. Charles Comiske, President of the Chicago Americans, who is spending a vacation in Wisconsin, telegraphed that he would be unable to attend the meeting at Cleveland, but he favored closing the park at once.

Base ball players at Cleveland favored no delay being made in obeying Secretary Baker's orders, and declared that if they should attempt to recruit their players from the veterans and those below age, including the semi-professional players, they might be deprived of the services of the veterans in New York and other states where the "Work or Fight" age limit is as high as 60 years.

No difficulty with player's contracts is anticipated if the parks are closed, as it is said that all of them contain a 10-day notice clause which will fully cover this emergency.

AWARDED THE PENNANT.

Chicago, Ill., July 21. — The Kansas City baseball team was awarded the pennant in the American association, at the close of today's game, which marked the end of the 1918 season, by Thomas W. Hickey, president of the league. This action followed the decision of the club owners to close the park immediately in response to Secretary of War Baker's interpretation of the "work or fight" order for baseball players of draft age.

AMERICAN LOSSES HEAVY.

Berlin, Germany, via London England, July 21.—North of Chateau Thierry, according to the official statement issued today, the Americans suffered particularly heavy losses.

AUSTRIAN MINISTRY TO RESIGN.

Copenhagen, Denmark, July 21. — The Austrian ministry has decided to resign, according to advices from Vienna received here

SUBMARINE OPERATES OFF CAPE COD ATTACKS TOW AND SHELLS MAINLAND

CHALLENGED ONLY BY HYDROPLANES

Attack Without Warning and Poor Marksmanship of German Gunners Lets Crew Escape

THREE BARGES ARE SUNK

Only Person Severely Wounded Proves to An Austrian Whose Right Arm Is Torn Off By Shell—Hunt For Submarine On

Orleans, Mass., July 21.—An enemy submarine attacked a tow off the east coast point of Cape Cod today, sank three barges, set their tug on fire and dropped four shells on the mainland. The action lasted an hour and was unchallenged except for two hydroplanes from the Chatham aviation station, which circled over the U-boat, causing her to submerge for a moment, only to reappear and resume firing.

The crews of the tow, numbering 11, and including three women and five children, escaped amid the shell fire in lifeboats. Several were wounded, but only one severely. This was John Botovich, an Austrian, of the crew of the tug, whose right arm near the shoulder was torn away by a fragment of shell. The minor injuries of the others were from shell splinters.

The barges were in tow of the tug Perth Amboy, owned by the Lehigh Valley railroad and were bound from Gloucester for New York. One was loaded with stone, but the others were light, being on their return trip after bringing coal to New England.

The attack was without warning and only the poor marksmanship of the German gunners permitted the escape of the crews.

The one-sided fight took place three miles south of Orleans coast guart station, which is located midway between Chatham at the elbow and Highland light at the extreme tip of the cape. The firing was heard for miles and brought thousands to the beach, from which the flashes of the guns and the outline of the U-boat were plainly visible. Possible danger to onlookers was not thought of until a shell whizzed over their heads and splashed in a pond a mile inland. Three other shells buried themselves in the sand of the beach.

The survivors of the tow, with the exception of two injured, were taken to the Orleans coast guard station, with which communication by telephone, under navy regulations, was not permitted. No information could be obtained from official sources on the cape. Bolovich and another man from one of the barges, both of whose arms had been injured, were removed to the private hospital of Dr. James McHugh. Later Bolovich was taken to a hospital in Boston. The survivors lost all their personal effects and some of them who were having their turn in their bunks when the U-boat appeared, came ashore in their night clothes.

The tug Perth Amboy, with her four barges in line, was puffing along leisurely just off the shoals two miles from shore at 11 o'clock this morning when the U-boat, of an estimated length of 400 feet, rose suddenly one mile seaward and trained her guns on the tow. A moment later, and without warning to the crew, a shell struck the second barge amidships. The empty craft doubled up and sank so quickly that her crew barely had time to lower their small boats.

Captain John H. Tapley of the tug had sounded his whistle as soon as the U-board was sighted and ordered the barges abandoned. The first shot was followed by a rain of shells that dropped on and all about the Perth Amboy and her barges. A lucky shot next sank the last barge. Meantime, hits on the tug had set her afire but she stood by her barges to the finish. The third barge in the line, the smallest of all, proved a hard mark and the German gunners occupied half an hour in firepring of her.

By this time the firing had alarmed the whole coast and cries for assistance were sent broadcast. No American warships, however, appeared to be in the vicinity and the exhibition of German gunnery went on undisturbed. Then two hydroairplanes took from the station at Chatham and flew low started toward the enemy as though to attack. It could not be seen that they dropped any bombs but the Germans hesitatingly anticipated an attack from the air for they stopped firing and elevated their guns against the hydroairplanes. They did not fire, however, and a moment later submerged.

The planes circled about where the enemy was last seen and then turned their noses toward their station. Scarcely had they reached shore when the U-boat reappeared and resumed her attack on the tug and the one little barge remaining afloat. Both the tug and the barge were in flames and were held where they were by the sunken barges, one of which, with a load of stone, made an effective anchor.

When the firing began the crews lost no time in abandoning the tow. Each of the four barges had one small boat intended to carry only five persons and all the crafts were greatly overloaded. In addition the occupants were exposed to constant danger from shell fire. Several merchant craft were in the vicinity and, regardless of the menace to themselves, went to the rescue of the crews and towed the small boats to shore. The men of the Perth Amboy, who stood by their ship until it was ablaze from bow to stern, were taken off by lifeboats from the coast guard station. The U-boat was still trying to find vulnerable spots in the Perth Amboy and the remaining barge when the hydroairplanes again approached. At sight of the planes the submarine again submerged and did not reappear.

The three women and five children did not suffer physical harm, although one of the women who had been making her first trip at sea, fainted after she had been placed in a small boat. Among the children was a boy of 11 years, who at the first sight of battle grabbed an American flag and shook it defiantly toward the U-boat. The lad was still clinging to the colors held proudly above his head when he landed on the beach.

The German commander either took a long chance or had an exact chart of the dangerous shoals and shifting sand bars off the cape. It would be impossible for him to submerge to any great depth and the scene of his exploits was not one in which undersea boats might be expected to operate. Tonight he was being hunted by patrol boats and other war craft.

OYSTER BAY HONORS QUENTIN ROOSEVELT

Colonel Will Not Now Decide About Entering Gubernatorial Race

Oyster Bay, July 21.—Oyster bay today paid tribute to the memory of Lieut. Quentin Roosevelt, son of the former President, whose death in an aerial engagement over the German lines had just become confirmed.

Flags were lowered to half mast and prayers were offered in all churches for the deceased, who was eulogized during the service at Christ Episcopal church, which members of the Roosevelt family attended.

In the midst of their sorrow, Col. and Mrs. Roosevelt today received a cheerful cable message from Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt jr., who sent word yesterday that her husband, Major Roosevelt, was lying wounded in Paris.

"Ted has clean bullet wound through leg below knee. Blake's hospital few days, then my house. No danger."

Col. Roosevelt, it was said, has laid aside for a few days consideration of political matters, but he may be expected within three or four days to announce whether he will become a candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

Chautauqua to Return.

It seems to be the consensus of opinion, that the program of entertainments given last week at the Chautauqua was the best of the three yet held here. While the attendance was not quite equal to that of previous years, attributed to the rainy weather and other unfavorable conditions, the townspeople were enthusiastic for another in 1919, and nearly double the guarantors this year signed for the next year.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

The New York Markets.

New York, July 21.—The securities market was firm to strong the greater part of the week, investors as well as professional traders deriving considerable interest from the Franco-American successes.

Trading was in moderate volume, however, with an undercurrent of cannon begotton in large part of the stiffer money tendencies and related deterrents.

It is yet too soon to measure the importance of the latest war news, but in well informed quarters the military events were regarded as an offset to adverse domestic developments.

Bankers entertain no fear of undue pressure and the soundness of the investment demands for high class securities was shown by the ready sale of the Bethlehem steel $50,000,000 note without recourse to federal aid.

International bonds were responsive to the war bulletins, especially Paris 6s, but the issue failed to retain more than a small part of its 4½ per cent advance. Liberty bonds comprised the greater part of the domestic bond division at nominal changes.

MR. ROOSEVELT'S DISCREDITABLE ATTEMPT TO MISREPRESENT THE ATTITUDE OF THE HEARST PAPERS EXPLAINED AND EXPOSED.

What Has Mr. Roosevelt Done in This War, Which Has Received as Much Commendation as the Hearst Papers in General and as This Editorial in Particular from the United States Government and from Patriotic Citizens?

Mr. Roosevelt recently made a vicious attack on the Administration at Washington in the course of which he also denounced the Hearst newspapers. He caused this diatribe to be printed in the Congressional Record and distributed broadcast.

He quoted some isolated sentences from the New York American in his unfair attempt to prove his accusation of disloyalty, separating these sentences from their context in the hope of creating a wrong impression. Mr. Roosevelt charged falsely and infamously that Mr. Hearst was not supporting the Liberty Loan.

Here is the exact quotation from Mr. Roosevelt's attack, reproduced from the news columns of the New York Times of May 11, 1918:

single-handed.
On May 25 the same paper said the efforts to float the Liberty Loan.
If you want our food and wealth sent abroad to help suffering England, buy a Liberty bond, furnish the sinews of war.
In view of Hearst's continued effort to excite hatred between the United States and England, the implication of this sentence cannot be mistaken. In the very next sentence he subtly attempts to appeal to all men with a feeling of affection for Germany by intimating that whoever purchased a Liberty bond desired to see Germany not merely defeated but dismembered." On July [illegible] New York American

Read this editorial carefully—read it word for word—and decide for yourself whether or not this kind of constructive support of the Government is helping to win

The Mailed Fist of Uncle Sam Must Be Armed with American Dollars

IF you want our American soldiers sent abroad to help bleeding France, buy a Liberty Bond! Furnish the sinews of war.

If you want our food and wealth sent abroad to help suffering England, buy a Liberty Bond! Furnish the sinews of war.

If you want to see Germany defeated and dismembered and the Kaiser deposed, buy a Liberty Bond! Furnish the sinews of war.

If you want to see monarchies ended and liberty and democracy established throughout the world, buy a Liberty Bond! Furnish the sinews of war.

Somebody has written for the Government an excellent appeal, from which we quote:

When the battle flags are furled and America sits at the Peace Conference you will be glad to know that you helped to place her there. You will be proud that your money was a factor to hasten the day.

Here is the opportunity for EVERY citizen to serve our country. Here is the opportunity for the man whom age or other limitations keeps from active service. Here is the chance for the woman whose heart thrills with those ideals which, in all ages, have ennobled the mothers of men. Here is the valued "bit" that the child may do with his little savings, the child whose future is wrapped up in the success of the cause.

Your every dollar, like the eagle it bears, "will come home to its nest." Your every dollar will come back to you not only with its interest at 3½% but with the higher reward of duty done. Buy now and insure the success of that cause to which we have pledged, as part of America's heritage to the world, "our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor." Buy now and urge others to buy that they may say with the patriot-preacher, "Our fathers stood up in the day of peril and laid again the foundations of liberty; in their hands the banner of our country streamed forth like the morning star upon the night."

The Liberty Bonds are issued in denominations of from $50 and $100 up to $100,000. If you have not $50 or $100 in cash right now, do not stop reading this. We will come to your case further on. You shall have your chance to strike and strike hard for your country.

Many people are unfamiliar with bonds and banks and financial matters generally. You doubtless would have purchased your Liberty Bond before now had you known exactly how to go about it.

Buying a Liberty Bond is just as simple as buying an article of wearing apparel, furniture or food. Go to any good Bank, Trust Company or Bond Company. Simply regard that institution as a STORE, ready to serve you with your needs.

Tell them you want to buy a Liberty Bond.

You need have no hesitation whatever—you will be treated with the utmost courtesy. And anything that you do not understand will painstakingly be made clear to you.

All Banks, Trust Companies and Bond Companies are handling the Liberty Loan and stand ready to serve you—incidentally, ENTIRELY WITHOUT PROFIT TO THEMSELVES.

Some people have the idea that to invest in a bond is to tie their money up. That is not so.

It is a Government Bond, the surest, safest investment in the world—secured by the entire resources of the richest country on earth.

Therefore it is readily salable ANYWHERE, ANY TIME. If you need money at any time, take your Liberty Bond to any bond broker or stock broker and he will be glad to buy it—or to almost any bank and borrow on it.

Your Liberty Bond is REAL MONEY—just as real as the greenbacks which you carry in your pocket. The $5 bill in your pocket NOW is nothing on earth but a bond—the United States Government's PROMISE TO PAY five silver dollars for it. The only difference is that your Liberty Bond, every dollar of it, is live, working money—earning 3½ per cent, which your greenback does not do.

Bear in mind that the Liberty Bonds are exempt and free from all taxation, both as to principal and interest—except estate or inheritance taxes.

Bear in mind also that the Liberty Bond is exchangeable, dollar for dollar, for any later bond which the Government may issue during the war which pays a higher rate of interest than this 3½ per cent.

It is the strongest investment you ever made in your life—absolutely secure. And it is ready money besides. It gives you the opportunity to save your money and serve your flag—at the same time. Your plain duty lies straight ahead—buy a Liberty Bond. And do it now.

We cannot all enlist as soldiers.

But we can all help to provide our country's strong right arm with the shining armor that will keep her unhurt and make her victorious.

BUY A LIBERTY BOND!

FURNISH THE SINEWS OF WAR.

... editorial, from which Mr. Roosevelt quotes in his dishonorable attempt to falsify the New York American's patriotic position, is the one which R. W. Woolly, Director of ... of the Treasury Department, Washington, asked The American to furnish for distribution to every Federal Reserve Bank in the United States—7,700 in number—and they ... sent free of charge. It was only a month later that Mr. McAdoo publicly denounced Roosevelt's lightweight champion, the New York Tribune, for publishing statements that ... was having "hard sledding" and that it was a failure at that time in the sense that too much of its burden fell on the banks. The plain truth is that the Hearst papers gave ... more extensive, more enthusiastic and more effective support to the Liberty Loan than any publications in the whole United States. The representatives of the Government of the United States knew this and recognized this. They applauded the earnest efforts of the Hearst papers and denounced the obstructive, unpatriotic attitude of the New York Tribune ... in attacking the Administration and its loyal supporters is merely playing cheap politics in behalf of his own insatiable ambition.

AMERICAN INITIATIVE.

In the accounts of the fighting on the Marne which from day to day have been received, upstanding features are the stories which are told of the valor and the quickness of the American soldiers in crucial moments. There is, for example, the report, well authenticated, of the sergeant, who, cut off from his own men, started for the Marne and met his captain, also alone. The Americans stayed it out in the woods until dark and lay in a thicket while Germans passed them in large numbers. They heard two machine guns and decided to get one of them. They crept close and charged, but the gun crew killed the captain. The sergeant and a corporal, who also had come along, killed the gun crew, but the sound brought to the spot the crew of his own machine gun, who had been in hiding, and together they went on until they saw Germans in a sector of trenches taken from the Americans. The sergeant divided his 12 men into 12 squads and at a prearranged signal all began firing from all directions at once. The Boches, thinking they were surrounded by a large party, threw up their hands, called "Kamerad" and surrendered. A little later Sergeant Brown with his 12 men brought 155 prisoners into camp. Brown was a shipping clerk a year ago, and when he had handed over his prisoners and plunder demonstrated early training by demanding, "Gimme a receipt!"

This is a single instance, but the woods of France have been full of deeds as heroic and as striking during the past week; and the men who have been doing them have been Americans. There is the American machine gun operator who had one hand blown off and to his despair saw the enemy passing out of the range of his gun, which he could not swing around, maimed as he was. But he drew his automatic and letting loose steered the Germans back into the range of his machine gun, which he fired with deadly effect. And of the corporal who was captured and sent back across the Marne in a canvas boat with two German guards. He rocked the boat, overturned it, and, swimming to the south bank of the river, escaped unharmed.

It is the opinion of the Boches that the Americans do not fight fairly. It is the custom of solitary men when found to throw up their hands and surrender. The Americans, however, keep on fighting and pay no attention to the rules of the game. No wonder the Germans do not understand the man who faces danger unafraid and even if forsaken and alone is still formidable and not loth to fight.

The facts are that the American soldier, perhaps because he has not been trained for years in a system which takes all the individuality out of a man and leaves him merely a part of a war machine, goes into the conflict with all the force, vim, vigor and personal initiative which makes him perfectly able to go it alone. He does not become helpless because officers are gone. Instead, he becomes in that instant an American army of one, who thinks for himself, takes orders from himself, acts for himself and goes ahead. Every day brings forward fresh instances, until it seems possible that the American advance is likely to become a record of individual heroism as much as it is the concerted movement of a great army.

Always there has been talk about the lack of military preparedness in America, and there may be reason for it. But perhaps one offsetting fact on the other side is that individuality has not been entirely drilled out of our boys, and that when an emergency arises there is still such a thing as American initiative.

LEAVE FOR STATE CONVENTION.

Otsego Delegates on Tuesday—Binghamton Boosters for Walker Today.

C. G. Tennant esq. of Cooperstown, Hon L. P. Butts and Hon Chester A. Miller of Oneonta, delegates to the State Democratic convention from Otsego county, will leave by the D. & H. tomorrow morning for Saratoga Springs. John B. McManus of Cooperstown and not improbably other Democratic leaders from the county, will accompany them.

It is understood that at least 400 boosters of the candidacy for the governorship of Mayor Harry C. Walker of Binghamton will leave that city by auto this morning at 9 o'clock. The trip will be via Sidney, Oneonta and Cobleskill, and the statement comes from Binghamton that other friends of the mayor will join them in the places named.

The two formidable candidates for the nomination appear to be Mayor Walker and Alfred E. Smith, president of the New York city Board of Aldermen.

So far as is known none of the Otsego county delegates are for Walker.

Change N-O-W to W-O-N

Did you ever notice the similarity of the word "NOW" to "WON"? Separate the letters in the word "now," and you have "n-o-w." Spell it backwards and you have "w-o-n."

Isn't it plain that to be able to say
I "won," I must do a thing now, and that the elements used for attaining the "won" column are largely built around the word "now"? Action or inaction now is the determining factor. The word "won" will never be written unless someone actually performs an act "now."

—Chautauqua guarantors who have not reported to Treasurer Crippen at at the Wilber National bank should do so before noon today. PRESSURE CANNER OPENS.

Good Attendance of Housewives—Fifty-four Cans Put Up Saturday.

The season's work with the pressure canner in Oneonta began last Saturday at the vacant store in the Emmons block. Many housewives of the city were in attendance, some of them with vegetables to be canned and others for the purpose of witnessing the demonstration of the work by Miss Lucille Hale, county demonstration agent for the Otsego County Home Economics clubs. In addition to her clear explanation of canning processes, Miss Hale spoke on the drying of fruits and vegetables, which this season will be urged in the case of many products.

In all there were 54 cans of vegetables put up on Saturday, the articles processed including peas, beans, beets and Swiss chard. The canner will be open again at 10 a. m. on Tuesday, and those having vegetables to be canned should phone 764-J today, in order that arrangements therefor may be made. The canner will also be open on Friday, it being thought inadvisable on account of the Chautauqua to have it in operation more than two days this week. Later definite announcement of the regular schedule will be made.

The attention of those having vegetables or fruits to be canned is called to the schedule of prices, which are two cents for pint cans and three for quarts when the housewife does her own work of preparing the articles; five cents for pints and eight for quarts when it is done for her. As the work is intended largely to be educational, it is hoped that all who can do so will prepare their own vegetables. This, however, should be done by them at the canner.

WAR CHEST EDITION.

List of Men in Service with Subscribers to Fund Appear Today.

With an unprecedented shortage of help and with it almost an impossible task to secure a correct list of the subscribers to the War Chest, it has been difficult indeed to comply with the desire of the War Chest directors for a complete list of both the Oneonta boys in the service and the contributors to the fund. The Star had no idea of the difficulties surrounding the task, else it would never have been undertaken. It has endeavored to make the compilation as complete as possible and both the Roll of Honor and the Home Supporters behind them appear in this issue. Extra copies have been printed and any desiring them to preserve or to forward to soldier boys may secure them at this office at the regular price while they last.

Regular semi-monthly meeting of directors of War Chest at 7:30.

Regular meeting Perseverance lodge, L. A. to B. of R. T., in K. of P. hall, this evening at 7:30.

TWO YOUNG MEN DROWN

Clarence Brown of Chestnut Street and Harold Edwards, son of Sherrill Edwards

EDWARDS DROWNS IN OULEOUT

Brown Floats Into Deep Water Near Buckley Farm After Companions Left the Otego Creek Waters.

Clarence Brown, a machinist's apprentice at the D. & H. shops, residing with his mother, Mrs. Ella J. Brown, at 267 Chestnut street, was drowned Sunday afternoon between 4 and 4:30 o'clock, while swimming in the Otego creek opposite the banks of the Cathedral farms of Henry H. Buckley, not from from the Country Club grounds. Brown with some companions had been in the water some little time and most of the others had dressed but he thought he would float down stream a bit before leaving. This he did and went into deep water below, where he was seen to be floundering as if unable to keep himself afloat or to swim. John Gabrick, who was still farther down the stream and the only one remaining in the water with him swam to his rescue, but was winded so that when he reached the spot and Brown failed to come up, he was unable to bring him to the surface. The shouts of Gabrick brought to his assistance Ralph Butts and Albert Otto, members of the party, and the three manged to get the body to the shore.

They with others from the Buckley farm who had been summoned by the cries for help worked over his body in efforts to resuscitate him. Meanwhile word had been sent to the Country club for medical aid and Dr. N. W. Getman, who was there, respond. When he reached the body considerable time had elapsed but for a half hours longer efforts were continued but with out avail. Dr. Getman declares that all hope of life had passed before his arrival. It is said that Brown was not an adept swimmer, but whether he got beyond his depth before he was aware and became frightened or whether he suffered from cramps will probably not be known.

The body was, after all efforts to restore respiration had failed, removed to the undertaking parlors of B. C. Packer where it was prepared for burial. Coroner Getman will sign the death certificate as accidental drowning. No arrangements for the funeral have as yet been made but will unboubtedly be announced in Tuesday's Star.

Only Son of Widowed Mother.

Clarence Brown was the only son of Mrs. Ella J. Brown of 267 Chestnut street and all familiar with the family say that he was exceptionally kind and devoted to her, his loyalty to her have been admired by all. She was greatly prostarted by the news of his demise. She with one sister, Mrs. Euel D. Dibble of 50 West Broadway, are the near surviving relatives. A grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Knapp, aged 82 years, also made her home with them, he being the mainstay of the family. There is also an aged grandfather on the paternal side, Henry Brown of West Laurens, the deceased having been born at that place 18 years ago last December.

The unfortunate victim was an attendant of the Free Baptist church and enjoyed the respect and esteem of the community. The mother and sister are nearly overcome by the tragedy.

Oneonta Boy Drowns at Franklin.

Franklin, July 21. — Harold Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherrill Edwards of Oneonta, was accidentally drowned this Sunday afternoon at about 2 o'clock, while in swimming in the Ouleout creek near the farm of his grandfather, John Edwards, with whom he had been residing for three or four years. The accident occurred about 1½ miles above this village. In company with a younger brother and two sons of Adelbert Robinson residing near, he went to the creek for a swim. Before the others realized what was occurring Harold went down in about 15 feet of water and none of them were able to assist him. One of them rushed to the Robinson home, where aid was summoned from this village. Mr. Burgin and the younger Mr. Lindsay hurried to the scene. Mr. Burgin was unable to locate the body, but the first time that Mr. Lindsay dove he came up with the body. It had then been in the water more than an hour and it was impossible to restore life.

Harold, whose age was 15 years, was a bright, intelligent lad well liked here, and much sympathy is felt for the family. The funeral services are to be held on Tuesday, at 2 o'clock, from the residence of the grandfather, Rev. Foster Edwards of Chatham, N. J., a cousin of the deceased, who is visiting here, will officiate and interment will be in the Oulcout Valley cemetery.

The mother of the unfortunate lad, who resides on Maple str t, went to Franklin during the afternoon, Austin Edwards coming for her with a motor car. The father, Sherrill Edwards, recently suffered a crushed leg in the D. & H. yards here and is at the Fox Memorial hospital and will be unable to attend the funeral. Besides the parents, two sisters, Alice and Ida Belle, and one brother, John Edwards, survive him. The boy is well remembered by many residents here as a likely lad of quiet nature and happy manners.

OFF AT 6:30 ON TUESDAY

DELEGATION OF 68 MEN TO LEAVE FOR CAMP MEADE, MD.

To Train for the Army Now Making the Kaiser Wish He'd Not Started the War.

With every man, woman and child in Oneonta wishing them Godspeed, 68 selected men from the First Otsego District will entrain tomorrow morning at 6:30 for Camp Meade, Md., where they will commence training to take their places in that wonderful army which is now making the Hun wish he hadn't started the war. They will report at the State Armory this afternoon at 3 o'clock for roll-call and a brief drill. They will then be dismissed until 5:30 tomorrow morning when they must meet again at the armory for inspection of baggage and final instructions. The Red Cross will give each man a package of chocolate and tobacco at that time. The men will be escorted to the station by Company G and the City band. The Cooperstown contingent of seven men will arrive in the city this afternoon and will entrain with the Oneonta men tomorrow.

No Men Go Today.

The seven men who were ordered to report to the Board yesterday afternoon to entrain this morning for Camp Meade were told, upon reporting, that the order directing the Board to send them was sent through a mistake in the Adjutant General's office at Albany, it being intended for the Cooperstown Board. A telephonic communication from the Adjutant General late yesterday afternoon told the Board of the error. The men affected will act as alternates for the contingent of 68 men going tomorrow and must report with them today.

Changes in List.

Several changes in the list of men to go have been necessitated at the last hour. It was found that Fred Sandike did not come up to the minimum height requirement of 60 inches recently ordered, and so he was rejected for service and his name taken from the list. Quality Company Buys Real Estate.

The Quality Silk Mill company has purchased of Mrs. Elizabeth Blakely a portion of her property on the corner of Center and East streets. The property purchased is a strip running through from the former Bouton property already owned by the Quality company to Center street. A building for storage purposes will soon be erected thereon.

The transaction for the above property will in no way interfere with the general plans of the company, which are to open its factory at an early date in well-located quarters in the central part of the city. While plans are not yet entirely perfected it is probable that definite announcement will soon be made.

ADVERTISING A Necessity

WHEN goods are scarce and prices high, people are more appreciative than ever of the right kind of advertising.

They are seeking information. They want to know how to buy to the best advantage.

They want to know how to fill their needs and avoid waste. They welcome news of desirable substitutes for the things the country needs to conserve.

They read the newspapers carefully.

The merchant or manufacturer who does not advertise is not only missing the purely selfish opportunity, but he is failing in the service he owes to his customers.

DEATH OF LESTER S. EMMONS

Life-Long Resident of Oneonta Township and City Dies Saturday Morning — Nineteen Years an Official of of State Fish and Game Commission.

Lester S. Emmons, a life-long, respected resident of Oneonta died at 10:25 o'clock last Saturday morning at his home at 332 Main street in this city. Mr. Emmons had been ill of diabetes for the past two years and had been gradually failing since that time. Though formerly a familiar figure upon the streets of the city where he had resided and where a long and active business life had been spent he had been unable to leave the home save for a few short trips in an auto about the town, since December 7. The immediate cause of his death, however, was a shock which he suffered on Sunday, July 14. Apparently slight at first, his condition from it steadily grew worse. Though unable to speak, he was conscious and recognized the members of his family up to the last hours of his life.

The funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at his late home. Rev. Dr. Edson J. Farley of the First Baptist church, of which the deceased was an attendant, will officiate, and interment will be in the family plot in Riverside cemetery.

Mr. Emmons was born October 24, 1842, at the stone house on the state road long known as the Emmons homestead, and was a son of Ira and Elizabeth (Carson) Emmons, who came to Otsego county in the early years of the nineteenth century. His early life was spent on the homestead. When a young man, however, he removed to the city (then village) of Oneonta and purchased the property on Main street which for fifty years, with the exception of two years later spent on the homestead, was his home.

From that time he was active, so long as health permitted, in the business life of the community. Engaging at first in the grocery business with his brother Ira, he later purchased the Mickle head-cutter business, which he long continued at the shop on Broad street. This business, which was the manufacture of heads for butter tubs, was long an extensive and prosperous one. Later he was for five years superintendent of the Oneonta Table company, and when this business was discontinued he erected the three story brick building on Main street known as the Emmons block, where he opened a grocery, conducting it for several years.

For nineteen years thereafter he was in the state service, being for a short time protector for the Fish and Game commission, then for ten years chief fire warden for the state, and thereafter auditor of accounts in that department. His whole term of service with the commission was 19 years. His work was marked by thoroughness and efficiency, and on his voluntary retirement he received high commendation from the state authorities. He was a member of the Oneonta Masonic lodge and chapter of Malta commandery at Binghamton.

Mr. Emmons is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Roxy A. Hurlbut, to whom he was married 55 years ago last December, and by two daughters, Miss Isola Emmons and Mrs. Wellington B. McMorris, both of whom, with the husband of the latter reside at the Emmons home. He also leaves three brothers, S. Rodney Emmons, of San Francisco, Cal.; Carson E. Emmons of Oneonta and Ira J. Emmons, of Atkinson, Ill., who reached this city Saturday morning; and a daughter-in-law and granddaughter, Mrs. Harriet Cole Emmons and Miss Elizabeth Emmons of New York city.

Mr. Emmons was a public spirited citizen and interested in all movements for the general welfare. He was a good neighbor and friend, and a loving husband and father. He was well-known to the older residents of the city, and by them in particular his death will be deplored. He was of sturdy colonial stock, his father being of New England ancestry, and his mother a descendant of an old family in the state of Maryland. In their affliction the family will have the sympathy of many friends.

MRS. EMMA BRITT

Tells How Vinol Creates Strength for Tired, Nervous Housekeepers.

Texarkana, Texas—"I keep house and I was weak, run-down and nervous, had ordered a good deal of the time, so it was hard to raise some of the chickens and do my work—Vinol has restored my strength, and my nervousness has gone, so I can do my work as well as ever."—Mrs. Emma Britt.

There is no secret as to Vinol—it owes its success in such cases to cod and iron peptonates, iron and manganese peptonates and glycerophosphates, the oldest and most famous body building and strength creating tonics. We recommend Vinol.

GOING AFTER UNTAGGED DOGS.

Ordered to Shoot Them Even Though License May Have Been Paid.

Owing to the fact that the state department of agriculture has been obliged to pay out more than $100,000 for the sheep destroyed in the state during the past year, a campaign has been launched by the state department and orders have been sent out not only to the state troopers but to all police officers about the state to destroy at once all untagged dogs. It matters not that you have paid the license and are in possession of a tag, should your dog be found without a tag properly attached to him, if he is seen, he is very likely to be hurried along to the next world at once without notice to you and without ceremony.

The state is anxious to preserve all the sheep possible, as both the wool and mutton are much needed, while dogs which owners do not prize sufficiently to keep tagged are not considered worth preserving in these days when food is so much needed for our soldiers and our allies. In one place which the state troopers recently visited they shot 27 dogs the first day.

In Oneonta the conditions are believed to be quite satisfactory, as Officer Conty located many stray dogs and the people owning dogs have quite generally secured new licenses and keep the tags attached to the animals. This would seem the only safe way in the future—if you want to keep your dog.

FIVE HUNDRED FIFTY BABIES.

Weighed and Measured Last Week in Campaign Throughout the City.

There were one hundred twenty children under the age of five years weighed and measured at the River street school building on Saturday in connection with the city's campaign for better babies. The session Saturday, which was the final one of a busy week, was held at the River street school building, and from morning to night the nurses and attendants were busy, the record of babies presented for record being the largest of the week in any one day where only a single session was held. While most of the children brought in were from homes in that portion of the city, there were others whose mothers had overlooked the work in their home districts, and brought in the children on Saturday as a last opportunity.

Out of a total of 550 children under five years who were registered by voluntary canvassers two weeks ago in Oneonta, there were 554 who were weighed and measured last week. These are very satisfactory figures and demonstrate the general interest which is felt in the better babies movement.

The report of the nurses shows that while there are few abnormal children there are some cases where the children are improperly nourished or not fed properly. The general examination, while very satisfactory, indicates the need of a clinic in the city to teach mothers how to feed and properly care for their children.

DIES FROM KICK OF HORSE.

William Tremlett, Respected Young Man of Garrattsville, Fatally Injured.

Garrattsville, July 21. — Residents of this village are deeply pained by the announcement of the death on Saturday of William Tremlett, a respected young man of this vicinity, who died on Saturday evening at 9 o'clock. Mr. Tremlett, who resided on the farm of his father, John Tremlett, with his parents and one sister, Caroline, had hitched up a horse to go to the hay field and had stopped at the watering trough. The tail of the horse had caught in the breeching and Tremlett stepped behind the animal to pull it out. As he did so the horse kicked, one hoof striking Tremlett in the abdomen.

The injured man was taken to the house, where everything possible was done for his relief, but without avail, and he died as above stated. The funeral will be held Wednesday at his late home at 2 p. m. and interment will be in the Edmeston cemetery. He was a most worthy citizen and his death will be deplored by many friends.

Mr. Tremlett was 24 years of age and is survived by his parents; by three brothers, Lee of Governeur, Stephen of the military training school at Buffalo, who reached home Sunday, and James of Chester, Pa.; and by three sisters, Mrs. Samuel Cole of Long Island, Mrs. Linn Heustis of Edmeston and Miss Caroline Tremlett of this place.

Farm Boys Camp at State Fair.

Each year the State Fair association conducts, as one of the features of the fair, a farm boys' camp. The expenses of the boys who are members of this camp are paid by the state. Competent supervisers will be with the boys during the entire week, who show them everything on the ground which is worth while and endeavor to see to it that they get all possible information during that week. Of course, the boys will be given time for recreation. One farm-reared boy from Otsego county can have the opportunities of this camp. Any boy who wishes to compete for entrance in this camp should make it known to County Agricultural Agent Floyd S. Barlow, Cooperstown, on or before August 1, who will furnish full information.

IT STOPPED MY SUFFERING

Said Mrs. Jaynes, Speaking of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Anderson, S. C.—"I got into an awful condition with what the doctors said was an organic displacement. I would have pains so badly that they would have to put hot cloths on me and give me morphine. The doctor said I would never be any better without an operation and I would never have any children without it. A neighbor who knew what your medicine would do advised me to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. I did so and it made me a well woman and the next September I gave birth to a healthy baby boy."—Mrs. Sallie Jaynes, 37 Lyon St., Anderson, S. C.

The letters which we are constantly publishing from women in every section of this country prove beyond question the merit of this famous root and herb medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
